

SHRI RATUL NUNISA

Constable/222 Ratul Nunisa belonged to 23rd AP(IR)Bn, Longnit, Karbi Anglong. He was born to a proud father named Shri Ranjan Nunisa and was a native of Gondabil, P.O. Tumpreng, P.S. Baithalangsho, Karbi Anglong.

On the fateful day of 5th June, 2014, Shri Nityananda Goswami, APS, Supdt. of Police, Hamren received a tip off regarding movement of armed militants in Rumphum area. Immediately, he launched a Counter Insurgency Operation in Rumphum Hanse Gaon along with other staff and personnel from Commando Platoon at Hamren Camp on the same day from 1300 hrs. In that brave operation, Ratul Nunisa was the PSO of Shri Nityananda Goswami. During the operation, the police party encountered a group of 25 militants, equipped with sophisticated weapons and the militants suddenly opened indiscriminate fire upon the Police contingent. Thereafter, in order to protect Govt. arms, property, his colleagues and the Supdt. of Police, Hamren, the brave heart constable retaliated the militant attack by firing. However, in the furious gun battle that followed, Ratul Nunisa was hit by bullets of the militants and attained martyrdom laying down his life on duty while protecting his motherland.
